

Bonfire collage

Tips on how to make your own arts and craft bonfire!

This is a super fun way to enjoy your bonfire night and it leaves a lovely reminder.

Option 1

You will need:

Paper

Sticks/twigs

Leaves

Glue

Sellotape

How to make it:

1. Break your sticks/twigs into small pieces.
 2. Using one stick/twig at a time sellotape it to the bottom of your paper.
 3. Continue sellotaping sticks/twigs to your paper, occasionally crossing them over. Make them as messy as you want!
 4. Once this is done, take your biggest leaf and glue the back of it.
 5. Press the glue side of the leaf to the piece of paper to stick it down.
 6. Continue to glue different size leaves to the paper.
- (Top tip. If you don't want to glue the leaves you can sellotape them instead).

Option 2

You will need:

Coloured paper (orange/ yellow/ red/ brown)

White paper sheet

Scissors - ask for help when using these

Glue

How to make it:

1. Cut your orange/ yellow/ red paper into flame-shaped pieces
2. Cut your brown paper into twig-shaped pieces
3. Glue the flames to a white paper sheet (shown in picture)
4. Glue the brown paper twigs to the bottom of the flames (shown in picture)

Option 3

You will need:

White paper

Colouring pencils

Scissors - ask for help when using these

Glue

How to make it:

1. Cut the white paper into flame-shaped and twig-shaped bits
2. Colour them in using any colour you'd like
3. Glue the flames to a white paper sheet
4. Glue the twigs at the bottom of the flames

If you're feeling creative, use any other materials or any other colours to make your bonfire collage!
