

Rosalind Franklin

First female prime minister.

Marie Curie

Activist who fights for women's rights to education and equality. Received a Noble Peace Prize at the age of 17.

Margaret Thatcher

First woman to fly solo across the Atlantic and first person to fly from the red sea to India, breaking multiple speed records on the way.

Amelia Earhart

Discovered radium and polonium, made a huge contribution to finding treatments for cancer and created a way to measure radioactivity gaining 2 Noble Prizes - one for Physics one for Chemistry.

Malala Yousafzai

Crystallographer took the first X-ray showing DNA was a double helix, crucial in finding its structure.

